

Remuneration

Salary and Benefits

Enterprise Care has been providing expert advice to Boards and Senior Executives for over 20 years. We are an established independent expert provider of comprehensive executive and director remuneration services.

Our solutions and insightful recommendations help boards, remuneration committees and senior managers navigate the complexities of executive remuneration.

With the increasing attention of stakeholders and questions of trust, greater accountability demanded from a governance and compliance position, and the challenges of media investigations and regulators; organisations must manage this area in a more professional manner.

Our remuneration services are comprehensive. This means our services range from partnering with clients to designing remuneration strategies, review and design incentive plans and conduct bespoke market remuneration benchmarking research.

At Enterprise Care our consulting services, advice and recommendations aim to be clear, precise and transparent so that boards, CEO's, senior managers will manage these issues cost-effectively and strategically.
